

Title: Compilation and Review Engagements

Author: Larry L. Perry, CPA, CPA Firm Support Services, LLC

Intro paragraph: This series covers professional standards affecting compilation and review services and focuses on AR Sections 60, 80 and 90. Materials focus on practical performance applications for compilation and review engagements.

Who will benefit: Practitioners at all levels of responsibility who would like to perform effective and efficient compilation and/or review engagements will benefit. CPAs in industry and non-profit organizations who require a current knowledge of compilation and review services to determine the appropriate level of service for their organizations will also benefit.

Learning objectives:

- Understand the fundamental concepts of compilation and review services
- Learn the requirements of professional standards affecting compilation and review services
- Consider the most practical ways to perform and document compilation and review procedures.
- Update knowledge of certain applicable accounting and quality control standards

Level: Basic

NASBA Field of Study: Accounting and Auditing