

Title: Quarterly Accounting and Auditing Updates

Author: Larry L. Perry, CPA, CPA Firm Support Services, LLC

Intro paragraph: Tired of searching through endless discussion papers, exposure drafts and new standards to stay abreast of topics that affect you? These webcasts present “how to apply” guidance in separate webcasts on non-governmental accounting standards and auditing standards that have become effective recently, as well as discussions of certain significant proposed standards that will have wide practice application.

Who should attend: Accounting and auditing practitioners at all levels in public accounting and private industry who desire an overview of recently released pronouncements from all applicable standard setters.

Learning objectives:

- To understand the contents of recent authoritative pronouncements
- To learn how to apply pronouncements that have recently become effective, or will soon be effective
- To acquire overview knowledge of certain proposed standards

Level: Update

NASBA Field of Study: Accounting and Auditing (two separate quarterly update webcasts)